

Pellerano & Herrera launches P&H LawNext in celebration of its 70th anniversary

P&H LawNext is a space created to share trending and innovative topics in the legal sector with its alumni, clients and the legal community.

In celebration of its 70th anniversary, Pellerano & Herrera launched on Thursday, February 16, the first session of P&H LawNext.

To commemorate such an important date, Pellerano & Herrera has developed a broad schedule of activities which commenced with the launch of P&H LawNext. Through this initiative, created as a space to share trending and innovative topics in the legal sector, the firm intends to continue its legacy of cultivating the Dominican legal heritage, and contributing to education in the legal sector and society in general.

In this inaugural discussion on "Public Trusts: Best Practices for their Use and Management", a topic that has been in the public arena and that concerns all Dominicans, top-level panelists participated, including Joel Santos, Minister of the Presidency of the Dominican Republic; Sigmund Freund, Executive Director of the General Directorate of Public-Private Partnerships; and, Christian Molina, Executive President of the Association of Dominican Trusts. The panel was moderated by Carolina León, partner at P&H.

Corporate counsel of renowned companies in the country, members of the P&H Alumni Circle, clients of the firm and personalities from the fiduciary world attended the event.

Welcoming remarks were given by Ricardo Pellerano, managing partner of P&H who stated, "Today we look to the future, preparing ourselves for the coming decades in a world that moves at breakneck speed, and which, especially after the pandemic, has forced our sector to adapt quickly to significant changes."

Pellerano commented that this year will be one of great changes for the firm and this initiative is the first of many innovative activities that it will carry out in celebration of its anniversary year. "This is not strange for us, because being avant garde has always been part of our firm's DNA, and we are relying on technology to face these new challenges."

Pellerano & Herrera has been one of the leading firms in the Dominican Republic in providing legal services for more than 35 years. Pellerano & Herrera is the exclusive member firm in the Dominican Republic for Lex Mundi - the world's leading network of independent law firms with experience in more than 100 countries worldwide.
